PROSECCO HISTORY

Prosecco is produced exclusively in north east Italy. Its story began in the area of Conegliano Valdobbiadene over three centuries ago, where the highest quality, Prosecco Superiore, is still produced to this day.

There are two levels of Prosecco on the market: the DOCG, the peak of the quality pyramid, representing by the Conegliano Valdobbiadene denomination, with its 15 hill municipalities, and the DOC base, covering the provinces of Treviso, Belluno, Venice, Padua, Vicenza, Udine, Pordenone, Trieste and Gorizia, a broad denomination made up of more than 600 municipalities in Veneto and Friuli.

The DOCG zone is in province of Treviso, stretching over the hills between the small towns of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene, 50 km from Venice and around 100 km from the Dolomites. The hills chains stretch from east to west, from the Venetian plain to the foot hills of the Alps.

Conegliano Valdobbiadene DOCG Prosecco Superiore. This sparkling wine displays a vibrant character. Three versions are made: Brut, Extra Dry and Dry, which are distinguished by the quantity of residual sugar each.

Brut – This is the most modern version of the Prosecco wines, the one that best suits international taste. It has a rich nose of citrus and vegetal notes and an attractive hint of crusty bread, plus a highly attractive, vibrant palate. The delicate bead ensures a lingering taste and a clean mouthfeel. Residual sugar 0 to 12 g/l.

Extra Dry – This is the traditional version, which combines various flavours with the bubble's elating, zesty flavour. A bright straw colour to which the bead adds extra sparkle. This fresh, elegant wine has a rich, fruity nose of apple and pear, with a hint of citrus fruit that fades into a floral undertone. The wine has a smooth mouthfeel to which a lively acid content gives the right touch of dryness. Residual sugar 12 to 17 g/l.

Dry – This is the least widespread version of the Prosecco wines and sets off the grape's floral/fruity quantities to best effect. Pale straw-yellow appearance with a subtle fruity nose full of citrus fruit, white peach and green apple tones. The palate is flavoured-packed, fresh and smooth with an elegant medium-dry mouthfeel. Residual sugar 17 to 32 g/l.

Residual sugar – depending on their sweetness, in accordance with the EU Sweetness of wine Regulations for Terms used to indicate sweetness of sparkling wine, Proseccos are labelled "Brut" (up to 12 grams per litre of residual sugar), "Extra Dry" (12-17 g/l) or "Dry" (17-32 g/l). It is usually measured in grams of sugar per litre of wine, often abbreviated to g/l or g/L. Residual sugar typically refers to the sugar remaining after fermentation stops, or is stopped, but it can also result from the addition of unfermented must.

ANDREOLA

The work of man modifies the territory, transforming the shape and the rhythm. Since 1984, the year in which Nazzareno Pola founded the family estate in the heart of the zone of production of Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore, Andreola has been an active part in this transformation. Today Stefano Pola continues to manage the estate with the same philosophy as his father, with the awareness that the best protection (defence) of the territory is the profound knowledge (total understanding) that Prosecco Superiore is not just a product but a living being (something alive): the result of the evolution of the vine, of its adaptability to the terrain and the climatic diversity, of labour which is still completely manual, of a heroic viticulture. From the vineyard to the final product being bottled in the cellar, it is necessary to conjugate (unite) wisely ancient methods and modern technology, passion with rationality. An evolution that has permitted Andreola to fully comprehend the character of Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore, and thus know how to create a unique style of wine, characterised by the purity of the product and the maximum enhancement of its original characteristics: the creaminess on the palate, the intense fruity yet elegant aromas on the nose, the harmony and balance.

MARCHIORI

Marchiori is a family winery in Farra di Soligo in the real heart of Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG Area. The family business began in the seventies of the last century. The winery is following all stages of production in the best sustainable way to give the customer a guaranteed product, full of real natural taste. The family owns 12 hectares divided into 16 different steep slopes, where sun rises, the water flows and the wind dries the leaves: every plot has a specific soil, from calcareous rocky to marl, exposure to the sun and altitude, making all the grapes different.

"We vinify vineyard grapes separately in order to give importance to the feature of each vineyard. In our hills we cultivate not only Glera Tonda (that forms the basis of Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco DOCG wine and all the Prosecco DOC) but also Glera Lunga and ancient varieties like Perera, Bianchetta and Verdiso that have particular features and are very useful for giving the wine a satisfying harmonious structure. We are the only winery able to produce that ancient varieties pure; for that reason, our Prosecco Superiore DOCG is called "5 varietà".

TASI

“TASI is a young, up and coming winery born in the cru of Tenuta Le Cave, Verona - Italy. They have transformed what was once a quarry, industrially exploited & abandoned, into a beautiful organic vineyard and Wine Relais overlooking the entire valley. The owners describe their wine making style as loving good wine, the natural products of the beautiful and wild land and the idea of bringing them to the world. They do not like pesticides, doctrine that is an end in itself and people who take themselves too seriously.

TASI is located between the hills of Amarone and the valleys of Soave and Prosecco, focusing on the traditional grapes and wines of these terrains. They produce unique wines, because they believe that nothing like a good bottle can bring people together and be part of great moments. The word TASI in Veneto dialect is a call to shut up everybody who take themselves too seriously. Wine is a passion that has to be shared with joy. ”
