PROSECCO HISTORY

Prosecco is produced exclusively in north east Italy. Its story began in the area of Conegliano Valdobbiadene over three centuries ago, where the highest quality, Prosecco Superiore, is still produced to this day.

There are two levels of Prosecco on the market: the DOCG, the peak of the quality pyramid, representing by the Conegliano Valdobbiadene denomination, with its 15 hill municipalities, and the DOC base, covering the provinces of Treviso, Belluno, Venice, Padua, Vicenza, Udine, Pordenone, Trieste and Gorizia, a broad denomination made up of more than 600 municipalities in Veneto and Friuli.

The DOCG zone is in province of Treviso, stretching over the hills between the small towns of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene, 50 km from Venice and around 100 km from the Dolomites. The hills chains stretch from east to west, from the Venetian plain to the foot hills of the Alps.

Conegliano Valdobbiadene DOCG Prosecco Superiore. This sparkling wine displays a vibrant character. Three versions are made: Brut, Extra Dry and Dry, which are distinguished by the quantity of residual sugar each.

Brut – This is the most modern version of the Prosecco wines, the one that best suits international taste. It has a rich nose of citrus and vegetal notes and an attractive hint of crusty bread, plus a highly attractive, vibrant palate. The delicate bead ensures a lingering taste and a clean mouthfeel. Residual sugar 0 to 12 g/l.

Extra Dry – This is the traditional version, which combines various flavours with the bubble' elating, zesty flavour. A bright straw colour to which the bead adds extra sparkle. This fresh, elegant wine has a rich, fruity nose of apple and pear, with a hint of citrus fruit that fades into a floral undertone. The wine has a smooth mouthfeel to which a lively acid content gives the right touch of dryness. Residual sugar 12 to 17 g/l.

Dry – This is the least widespread version of the Prosecco wines and sets off the grape's floral/fruity quantities to best effect. Pale straw-yellow appearance with a subtle fruity nose full of citrus fruit, white peach and green apple tones. The palate is flavoured-packed, fresh and smooth with an elegant medium-dry mouthfeel. Residual sugar 17 to 32 g/l.

Residual sugar – depending on their sweetness, in accordance with the EU Sweetness of wine Regulations for Terms used to indicate sweetness of sparkling wine, Proseccos are labelled "Brut" (up to 12 grams per litre of residual sugar), "Extra Dry" (12-17 g/l) or "Dry" (17-32 g/l). It is usually measured in grams of sugar per litre of wine, often abbreviated to g/l or g/L. Residual sugar typically refers to the sugar remaining after fermentation stops, or is stopped, but it can also result from the addition of unfermented must.

MARCHIORI

Marchiori is a family winery in Farra di Soligo in the real heart of Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG Area. The family business began in the seventies of the last century. The winery is following all stages of production in the best sustainable way to give the customer a guaranteed product, full of real natural taste. The family owns 12 hectares divided into 16 different steep slopes, where sun rises, the water flows and the wind dries the leaves: every plot has a specific soil, from calcareous rocky to marl, exposure to the sun and altitude, making all the grapes different.

"We vinify vineyard grapes separately in order to give importance to the feature of each vineyard. In our hills we cultivate not only Glera Tonda (that forms the basis of Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco DOCG wine and all the Prosecco DOC) but also Glera Lunga and ancient varieties like Perera, Bianchetta and Verdiso that have particular features and are very useful for giving the wine a satisfying harmonious structure. We are the only winery able to produce that ancient varieties pure; for that reason, our Prosecco Superiore DOCG is called "5 varietà".

ANDREOLA

The work of man modifies the territory, transforming the shape and the rhythm. Since 1984, the year in which Nazzareno Pola founded the family estate in the heart of the zone of production of Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore, Andreola has been an active part in this transformation. Today Stefano Pola continues to manage the estate with the same philosophy as his father, with the awareness that the best protection (defence) of the territory is the profound knowledge (total understanding) that Prosecco Superiore is not just a product but a living being (something alive): the result of the evolution of the vine, of its adaptability to the terrain and the climatic diversity, of labour which is still completely manual, of a heroic viticulture. From the vineyard to the final product being bottled in the cellar, it is necessary to conjugate (unite) wisely ancient methods and modern technology, passion with rationality. An evolution that has permitted Andreola to fully comprehend the character of Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore, and thus know how to create a unique style of wine, characterised by the purity of the product and the maximum enhancement of its original characteristics: the creaminess on the palate, the intense fruity yet elegant aromas on the nose, the harmony and balance.

They have transformed what was once a quarry, industrially exploited & abandoned, into a beautiful organic vineyard and Wine Relais overlooking the entire valley. The owners describe their wine making style as loving good wine, the natural products of the beautiful and wild land and the idea of bringing them to the world. They do not like pesticides, doctrine that is an end in itself and people who take themselves too seriously.

TASI is located between the hills of Amarone and the valleys of Soave and Prosecco, focusing on the traditional grapes and wines of these terrains. They produce unique wines, because they believe that nothing like a good bottle can bring people together and be part of great moments. ETTORE GERMANO

Since 1856, the Germano family has seen four generations of devotion to both their viticulture and excellent wine production. The estate lies on one of the most important crus of Serralunga d'Alba named "Cerretta", a hill with a wide winegrowing area facing South, South-West. Germano's 6.6 hectares of vineyards are dedicated to the cultivation of Chardonnay, Barbera, Dolcetto and Nebbiolo, while a smaller area is reserved for Riesling and the indigenous white grape Nascetta. The Germano family is blessed with some of the very best vineyards, owning vines in Lazzarito (a true grand cru), Cerretta, Prapò and now, thanks to an inheritance, even the legendary Vigna Rionda, which many experts consider the single greatest Barolo vineyard of all. Sergio and his wife Elena manage the estate from viticultural to winemaking to sales. Sergio's wines have steadily improving for the last decade, and today we are proud to represent one of the most talented winemakers from Piedmont.

On the nose there is typical bready notes of Metodo Classico, dried fruits such as peach and apricot and some underlying floral notes. On the palate it is rich and full with good acidity and a lovely creamy sensation given by the perlage.

The grapes are hand harvested and are brought to the winery where they are immediately pressed in whole cluster, taking the skins off the must. The must is fermented at a low temperature. A part of the base wine is refined in medium-sized, untoasted barrels, while the remaining part stays in steel tanks. Once the alcoholic fermentation has completed the wine ages on the lees for a period of refinement, at this time periodic bâtonnage is carried out. At the end of this period the wine will age on its lees for another minimum 30 months before the disgorgement and dosage takes places.

CHAMPAGNE

Legras & Haas is family-owned winery in Chouilly, in the heart of the Champagne region. Chouilly is a Grand Cru village in Côte des Blancs, just south of Epernay, that is responsible for producing some of the regions finest Chardonnay wines. Founded in 1991 by Brigitte Haas and François Legras, the estate is currently run and managed by their three sons Rémi, Olivier and Jérôme. Each of whom control different aspects of the business.
